

Positives Poster (Family Activity)

Have a chat in your family of all the things that happened during lockdown.

Talk about what things were a positive surprise that happened.

Draw, write, find pictures to cut and stick to make a poster for your fridge about all the positives that did happen e.g. talked more over WhatsApp to family or friends, played more games together, baked, made something you have never made before.

