

18.1.19

We are loving our Supertato topic- this week we read Supertato Veggies Assemble so we have been looking at what it means to be a hero and talking about real life heroes. We have also fully embraced everything superhero culminating in our dressing up day today!

We have learnt the new sounds 'x'(looking at animal x-rays), 'w' and even played the violin for our 'v' sounds from last week. The Evil Pea has also captured some new tricky words: we, me, be, he and she.

In Maths we have been estimating again and using pennies in our vegetable shop to buy things using the correct amount of money. We have seen some fantastic shopkeepers who have been checking the amount given to make sure it's correct!

We've enjoyed the last few days of freezing nights and have set up some experiments in the tuff tray – which tub will freeze the most? We found that the cupcake case water froze solid but the washing up bowl had a top layer of ice but still some water underneath. Our final book is Evil Pea Rules where he covered the whole supermarket in snow, so fingers crossed the weather links nicely in with our story!!!

Have a great weekend

Mrs Roddy and EYFS team

Reminders

Please come with jumpers, coats, hats and gloves so that we can play outside without freezing next week.

Thank you so much for the donations of potato heads and Lego- the children have spent lots of time creating with them this week.

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

Fri 25th January

I am still awaiting official confirmation but am hoping to be going on a local trip (notice I'm keeping it hush hush as I don't want it to fall through and the children to be disappointed!)

Ideally I would need 2/3 volunteers to walk down and back with us. I am hoping that it will be at 10am so walk down first thing and then back by 11:30ish. Please let me know if you are available.

I will send out more details next week once it's confirmed.
